Sunflower Community Project:

Connecting Community through Creativity and Counselling

£52-£42

- Earn £30,000+ and have low/no debt
- Own your home or have high rent
- Take multiple holidays yearly
- Expendable income is consistent
- Can access wealth or savings when needed

£41-£33

- Employed or do not need to work
- Can always meet basic needs
- Own or rent high-cost housing
- Own a car, take holidays regularly
- Can buy new items monthly without concern
- Some savings or family financial support

£32-£26

- able to meet basic needs but with occasional stress
- • Some debt, but manageable
- • Employed and have some expendable income
- • Can buy occasional new or second-hand items
- • May take short holidays without major hardship

£25-£18

Trainees may offer sessions from £15-£18

- Regularly stress about basic needs (housing, food, transport)
- In debt that affects daily life
- Receive benefits with no savings
- Unemployed or underemployed
- Rarely buy new items, can't afford holidays

Sliding Scale for Counselling sessions

Note: We aim to keep our services accessible.
If you are genuinely unable to pay the minimum suggested fee, please contact us – we want to work with you, not turn anyone away.